IN the year 1854, a National Convention of the surviving soldiers and sailors of the War of 1812 assembled in the Hall of Independence, Philadelphia, Pa., from all parts of the Union and formed then and there, a permanent organization, which has been continuously maintained.

The sons and grandsons of these veterans, being eligible, have also since joined, whose duty it is to aid their sires to obtain their just rights, relieve their wants, and secure them respectable and, where possible, a military burial.

The almost utter extinction of the heroes of that war, there being now but few living, scattered over the United States, has caused the purposes of this Society to be materially changed since its original organization.

In order to cultivate and maintain at the present day patriotic sentiments and a love of country; to rescue from oblivion and preserve all books, documents, pamphlets, papers, portraits and relics, in reference to a war (rightly designated as our Second War for Independence), waged by an infant government against an arbitrary mother; to celebrate the glorious victories achieved by our ancestors in such an apparently unequal conflict; to honor the memories and perpetuate the spirit of those who completed the work of the American Revolution, and to hand down to posterity a feeling of reverence for their heroic forefathers, who risked their lives and hazarded their fortunes for their country's safety; all male descendants of soldiers and sailors of the War of 1812 are now invited to join and endeavor to promote the purposes, as stated, of this Society.

Any lineal male descendant above the age of twenty-one years, of those who participated in the War of 1812, either in the army, navy or privateer service, is eligible to membership on application being made to and approved by the Board of Direction (composed of the Officers and Executive Committee of the Society), setting forth the services performed by the ancestor under whom he may claim and submitting such proof thereof, as may be satisfactory to the said Board of Direction.

In case of failure of lineal descent, one such collateral descendant as may be deemed worthy by the said Board, may be admitted to membership in the Society.

The payment of fifty dollars at one time shall constitute a life-membership, and the payment of one hundred dollars at one time shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, which upon the death of a member so paying, shall be held by his eldest son or such other descendant as he may nominate, with the approval of the Board of Direction. All those holding life or endowed memberships are exempt from the payment of initiation fee and annual dues.

The application for membership in all cases, must be also recommended by two members of the Society, testifying to the good moral character and respectable standing in his community, of the applicant.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, for the County of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania :--

In compliance with the requirements of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain Corporations," approved the 29th of April, 1874, and the supplements thereto, the undersigned, the majority of whom are citizens of Philadelphia, having associated themselves together for the purpose of maintaining a Society for the perpetuation of memories of the War of 1812, honoring and aiding surviving veterans of that war and cultivation of general respect and interest in our country's history, desiring that they may be incorporated according to law, do hereby certify:

First.--The name, style and title is the "Society of the War of 1812."

Second.—This Society, originally organized by surviving veterans of the War of 1812 in a general convention held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in Independence Hall, January 9th, 1854, and continued by them and their descendants, sons and grandsons of deceased participants in that war, has for its objects: To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men who completed the work of the Revolution by the victories of the War of 1812; to encourage research in relation to this event and the publication of the same; to the establishment of a library and museum for the preservation of documents and relics relating to said war; care and burial of veterans of the War of 1812 where it is necessary, and participation in and promotion of the celebration of the anniversaries of the great events of that war; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

Third.—Male citizens of full age, who participated in, or are descendants of men who served the government during the War of 1812, either in the army, navy or privateer services, may be admitted to membership in this Society.

Fourth.—This Society, seated and located in the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, United States of America, shall have the right to constitute, warrant, authorize and recognize one branch of the Society of the War of 1812, in each State or Territory of the United States.

Fifth.—The Society shall have power to adopt a constitution and rules for its government to carry out the objects above set forth, and such similar objects as are not antagonistic to the laws of the United States or of any Commonwealth in the Union, or of the welfare or happiness of the people thereof.

Sixth.--The officers of the Society for the ensuing year shall be: John Cadwalader, President; Francis Asbury Roe, Marshall I. Ludington, Edward Trenchard, John Biddle Porter, Appleton Morgan, Vice-Presidents; Peter S. Hay, Secretary and Treasurer; Andrew Jackson Reilly, Registrar; Thomas Chase, Assistant Secretary; Henry H. Bellas, James Glentworth, Charles H. Murray, Henry M. Hoyt, Jr., A. Nelson Lewis, Reynold W. Wilcox, Henry Dexter Warren, D. McKnight Hobart, William Ellison Bullus, Executive Committee.

Seventh --The said Society is to exist perpetually.

Eighth.--The names and residences of the subscribers are as follows: John Cadwalader, 1519 Locust Street, Philadelphia.; Francis Asbury Roe, 1232 Seventeenth Street, Washington, D. C.; Peter S. Hay, 4542 Rubicam Avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.; Andrew J. Reilly, 1437 North Nineteenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; Henry H. ## PREAMBLE.

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, victory having crowned the forces of the United States of America, in upholding the principles of the Nation against Great Britain in the conflict known as the War of 1812; we, the survivors and descendants of those who participated in that contest, have joined together to perpetuate its memories and victories, to collect and secure for preservation, rolls, records, books and other documents relating to that period; to encourage research and publication of historical data, including memorials of patriots of that era in our national history; the establishment of a library and museum; to care for and, when necessary, assist in burying actual veterans of that struggle; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The Society shall be known as the "Society of the War of 1812, in the ~~Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,~~"

District of Columbia

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, ~~who participated in, or~~ who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the army, navy, revenue-marine or privateer service of the United States, offering proof thereof satisfactory to the Executive Committee, and of good moral character and reputation, may become a member of this Society when approved of by the Board of Direction or the Society.

~~In case of the failure of lineal descendants of an actual participant in the war on behalf of the United States, one collateral descendant, whom the Board of Direction deems worthy, may be admitted to represent the said participant.~~

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

The officers shall consist of a President, five Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Historian, and an Executive Committee of nine members, who, together, shall form the Board of Direction, having the general management of affairs of this Society. They shall be chosen by ballot at the annual meetings of the Society, by and from members in good standing.

The Board of Direction shall control the affairs of the Society, regulate the terms and details of admission to membership, fix salaries, make appropriations, arrange for meetings (other than usual), and celebrations, provide relief in sickness or death of actual veterans, receive delegates from similar constituted, societies or individuals of national reputation—as patriots,—and collect and provide for the due care and safety of books, documents, papers, portraits, reliques and such literature relating to the War of 1812 as may be acquired by purchase, gift, bequest or loan.

ARTICLE IV.

ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Every application for membership shall be made in writing, and in duplicate upon the form provided by the Society for that purpose, subscribed by the applicant, setting forth claims of eligibility, and contain or be accompanied by proofs of same.

On the recommendation of two members, such application and proofs shall be submitted to the Executive Committee or to such sub-committee as they may select, who may approve of and report the same to the Board of Direction. Payment of the initiation fee and subscription to the declaration in the printed form of application, is required of each applicant on admission.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

The regular meeting of the Society shall be held in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, United States of America, on the eighteenth day of February, in each year (unless it shall fall upon Sunday, when the day subsequent may be substituted), that being the anniversary of the proclamation of peace in 1815, the end of the War of 1812.

Washington, District of Columbia

The Board of Direction will hold its annual meeting on or about the nineteenth day of June in each year, the anniversary of the declaration of war in 1812, by the United States against Great Britain.

Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of ~~ten~~ or more members, to transact only such business as shall be specified in the call. No questions involving partisan politics, religion or offensive personalities shall be discussed at any meeting.

~~When practicable, the meetings shall be held in the old Senate Chamber of the United States, where Washington and Adams were inaugurated.~~

ARTICLE VI.

This Society shall conform to the General Society in its Constitution, but shall have the right to govern its own affairs outside of the restrictions prescribed therein. It shall elect each year, at its annual meeting, five delegates to represent its membership at the bi-ennial or other meetings of the General Society.

ARTICLE VII.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

Any member found guilty of unlawful or improper conduct, after due notice and fair trial, may be expelled under rules and regulations made and provided for that purpose.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, and shall consist of a rising sun, bearing on its face a representation of the bombardment of Fort McHenry by the British fleet, while above the sun and its rays, rises, displayed, the Star Spangled Banner of our country, with the motto of the Society—"For our country's rights"—in small Roman capital letters overhead. The design described to be surrounded by wreaths of oak and laurel, (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor on each side of, and below said design. The whole to be encircled with a waving ribbon, one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing above, in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, "The Society of the War of 1812," and below, in similar letters, the words, "Founded 1854." The Secretary of the Society shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be used for the purposes designated by the Board of Direction.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENTS.

No alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution until a written resolution to that effect be offered at a stated meeting of the Society, considered and approved by the Board of Direction, and, at some subsequent meeting, receive the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present or represented.

ARTICLE X.

CHARTER.

The charter granted by the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, for the County of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, November 9, 1892, is hereby accepted, approved, and made part and parcel of this constitution.

RULES.

FINANCES.

SECTION I. The initiation fee shall be four (4) dollars; the annual dues ~~two (2)~~ dollars, payable between January 1st and February 15th, in each year. After the latter date, members who have not paid, will be deemed in arrear and debarred from voting at the meetings of the Society. Persons admitted to membership after October 1st of any year, are exempt from payment of dues for that year. The payment at any one time of fifty (50) dollars shall entitle the member so paying, to a life membership. The payment of one hundred (100) dollars at any one time, shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying, the said membership shall descend to and be held by his eldest son or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom claim is made, as he may nominate. In case of failure of such nomination having been made, the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold said membership: Provided, always, That the Society reserves to itself in all cases the right of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships, will be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

The permanent fund, acquired by contributions, donations, legacies and by initiation, life and endowed membership fees, shall remain forever to the use of the Society, the income thereof to be used for the assistance of such deserving members, who are veterans of the War of 1812, as may need financial aid; and if not so required, then for the purpose of the library and museum, and for the general welfare of the Society. This permanent fund shall be invested in such manner as may be determined upon by the Board of Direction.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 2. The President, or, in his absence, a Vice-President, or, in their absence, a Chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society or Board of Direction, and shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer under general parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the Society, in proper cases under these rules. The President shall be, ex-officio, a member of all committees. He shall have power to call a meeting of the Board of Direction at such time and place, as he may deem advisable. He shall represent this Society, either in person or by substitute, at such assemblages as may be consistent with the objects, aims and purposes of this Society.

In case of his decease, resignation, neglect to serve, or inability from any cause to act as President, the duties of the office shall devolve on the senior Vice-President until the disability shall cease or his successor is duly elected and qualified.

SECRETARY.

SECTION 3. The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all accepted candidates of their admission and perform such other duties as the Society or Board of Direction may reasonably require of him, and in addition thereto such other duties as are required of him by the Constitution of the General Society. He shall have charge of the seal, certificates of incorporation, insignia, constitution, rules and resolutions, historical and other documents, and records of the Society, other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar.

He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership and transmit to him the applications and proofs of eligibility of all persons admitted. He, together with the presiding officer, shall, when necessary, certify all acts of the Society and in proper cases authenticate them under seal. He, with the Registrar, shall have charge of all printing and publications directed by the Society or Board of Direction. He shall give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society and of the Board of Direction, and shall attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Board of Direction, and shall give notice to the several officers of all proceedings appertaining to their respective duties; and at the annual meeting, or oftener, if required, shall report to the Society the names of those who have been admitted to membership and the names of those who, from any reason, have been disassociated. The Secretary shall also notify the Historian and Registrar of all deaths in the Society, and, where convenient, these officers may represent the Society at the funerals of deceased members.

The Assistant Secretary shall perform the functions assigned to him by the Secretary, and, in the absence or inability of that officer to act, fill his place.

TREASURER.

SECTION 4. The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit the same in some banking institution, which shall be designated by the Board of Direction, to the credit of the "Society of the War of 1812." Such funds shall be drawn thence by the check of the Treasurer, countersigned by the President, to be used only for the purposes of the Society. Checks for sums not larger than twenty-five dollars need not be counter-signed.

Out of these funds the Treasurer shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society, Board of Direction, or, in case of urgent necessity, the Executive Committee. He shall keep a true and accurate account of his receipts and payments; and at each annual meeting, report the full financial condition of the Society, when an auditing committee shall be appointed, who shall report the result of their audit to the Board of Direction.

REGISTRAR.

SECTION 5. The Registrar shall receive from the Secretary, file and keep on record, all the proofs upon which membership has been granted; a list of all certificates countersigned by him, and all documents, rolls, or other evidences of service in the War of 1812, of which the Society may become possessed; and shall make, or cause to be made, for the filing in his office, copies of such original or certified copies of such documents, as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society. He shall receive donations of books, documents and relics relating to American history of the first twenty five years of the nineteenth century, and, under the direction of the Executive Committee, secure such publications, manuscripts or objects of interest, as may be obtainable by purchase, for preservation in the library or museum.

He shall aid and co-operate with the Secretary in all printing and publications ordered by the Society, or Board of Direction, correspond with Registrars of patriotic societies in the United States, and, whenever convenient, accompany the Secretary to funerals of deceased members.

HISTORIAN.

SECTION 6. The Historian shall prepare at least one historical paper during the year for which he is elected, and obituaries of members deceased during the year.

BOARD OF DIRECTION.

SECTION 7. The Board of Direction, composed of the elective officers of the Society, united with the Executive Committee, shall generally superintend the interests and have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. The Board shall receive nominations for officers, filed prior to the first day of January in each year, and shall prepare the tickets for voting by the members at the annual meeting in the February following.

The said Board shall have power to consent to and accept the resignation or voluntary withdrawal from membership of any enrolled member of the Society, and may also issue an authorization to any enrolled member of this Society, in good standing and repute, to be admitted as a member and affiliate with any State Society recognized by the General Society.

The Board may require the attendance of any member, or any official or committee of this Society, at any meeting, for consultation or advice. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held on, or about the date of the anniversary of the declaration of war by the United States against Great Britain. The Board shall also hold a preliminary meeting in January, to prepare business for the annual general meeting of the Society in the February following. The Board may also be convened by the President at the written request of three of its members. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

At the annual meeting of the Society, the Board shall submit a general report of its proceedings during the year then closing, and at such other times as may be required by the Society.

The Board of Direction shall have power to suspend any enrolled member of the Society who, by ungentlemanly conduct or by a radical opposition to its interests, may render himself unworthy to continue a member, or wilfully neglects to fulfill the requirements of the constitution and rules of this Society. Such accused member shall be entitled to receive thirty days' notice of the complaint preferred against him, and be afforded a fair opportunity to be heard in person, before suspension. If no appeal be taken within sixty days, such suspension shall become expulsion and be so reported to the Society at its annual meeting.

The Board may direct the Secretary to drop the name of any member from the rolls, who shall be in arrear in the payment of his dues for the period of three years; but such name may be restored subsequently, by a vote of two-thirds of the Board, on application by such member being made therefor and payment of all arrears up to date.

The Board may suspend any officer for clear cause of lack of integrity, want of faithfulness, or for gross neglect in the performance of his duties and report the same to the Society within sixty days, by which, after fair opportunity for hearing, such action may be confirmed; or by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at the meeting, the suspension be annulled and the officer restored to his position.

Whenever an officer of this Society or a member of its executive committee shall die, resign or neglect to serve, or be suspended or removed, or be unable to properly perform his duties from any cause, the Board of Direction shall have power to appoint a member to the vacant office. Provided, That the office of President shall not thus be filled, when there shall be a Vice-President competent to act.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

SECTION 8. The Executive Committee shall judge of the qualifications of every candidate who shall make proper application for admission to the Society, and shall have power to admit him to membership therein, subject to the approval of the Board of Direction. Three negative votes shall be a rejection of the applicant.

The said Executive Committee may, through the Secretary, call a special meeting of the Society at such times as may be necessary, and arrange for business meetings and commemorative celebrations by the Society.

The said Committee may hold meetings monthly, to act upon applications for membership, and consider all matters proper for the attention and action of the Board of Direction at the meetings of that body.

The said Committee may suggest the names of three clergymen, from which list the President shall appoint a Chaplain to serve one year.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 9. Ten days' notice of time and place of annual or special meetings may be given by publication in ~~two~~ daily newspapers in the City of Philadelphia, and by mailing through the Post Office, a written or printed notice to every member of the Society. At all meetings of the Society fifteen members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The order of business shall be as follows:

1. Prayer.
2. Reading of minutes.
3. Report of Board of Direction.
4. Reports from officers.
5. Reports from special committees.

6. Communications read.
7. Election of officers.
8. Unfinished business.
9. Miscellaneous business.

MEMBERS.

SECTION 10. Each member, on being notified of his admission, shall signify his adherence to the constitution and rules, and forward to the Secretary of the Society his initiation fee and one year's dues.

Change of residence should at once be communicated to the Secretary, as service of notice at his last recorded address shall be considered sufficient.

SUSPENSION OF RULES.

SECTION 11. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended at any meeting of the Society or Board of Direction, by a two-thirds vote of those present when the exigencies of the case may require it.
